Program:	Diploma of Social and Psychological Science

Course Description

This course enables students to consider human services work with people from diverse cultural and minority group backgrounds who represent a truly unique combination of traits, cultures, experiences, and backgrounds. Within this diversity, some identities come to be socially, culturally, and politically privileged and accepted as "normal" while others are marginalised and oppressed. This creates significant gaps in marginalised persons' experiences of equity, health, wellbeing, and social justice. The course examines points of tension between the norms and traditions of other cultures and those of Australian society. In particular, students will develop an understanding of diverse groups who currently experience social marginalisation in Australia and elsewhere.

Students will also develop skills in self education and awareness around diversity and ways of practising in anti- oppressive and culturally sensitive ways. Students will also be supported to explore selfcare techniques that they can use to support themselves and others when working for social change and social justice

3.4 Other Information about your Learning

Attendance

You are expected to actively engage in all learning experiences and learning activities which underpin the learning content in this course. You are expected to engage with the learning content and learning activities outside of timetabled class times. This requires you to be an active agent of your learning. You are expected to bring all necessary learning resources to class such as the required textbook and /or Workbook. In addition, you are encouraged to BYOD (bring your own device) to class such as a laptop or tablet. This is not a requirement as computer lab facilities are available on campus, however, the use of such devices in the classroom is encouraged with appropriate and considerate use principles being a priority.

Preparation and Participation in Learning

In order to enhance your learning, you need to prepare before participating in the learning experiences. Absorb the learning content and complete the learning activities that are provided online before you attend the scheduled learning experiences. Make sure you complete the learning activities set each week, they are designed to support your learning. Active participation in your learning will enhance your success. Ask questions when something is unclear or when you want to bring some issue to your lecturer or tutor's attention; respond to questions to test your knowledge and engage in discussion to help yourself and others learn.

Consultation Sessions

Teachers offer extra time each week to assist students outside the classroom. This is known as 'consultation time.' You may seek assistance from your teacher on email or in person according to how the teacher has explained this to the class. Attendance during consultation time is optional but you are encouraged to use this extra help to improve your learning outcomes.

Course Learning Materials

Learning materials are made available to you in MyStudy on the Griffith College Portal. The learning materials are arranged in Modules. In each Module you will find the learning content, learning activities and learning experiences. Actively working your way through these course learning materials together with your lecturer or tutor will prepare you to succeed when completing the evidence of learning (assessment).

Self-Directed Learning

You will be expected to learn independently. This means you must organise and engage with the course learning content even when you are not specifically asked to do so by your lecturer or tutor. The weekly guide will be helpful to organise your learning. This involves revising the weekly course learning material and completing the learning activities. It also means you will need to find additional information to evidence your learning (assessment) beyond that given to you, and to construct your own response to a question or topic. All of this requires careful planning of your time. Expect to spend, on average, at least 10 hours per week including class time for each of your courses.

Program Progression

You are reminded that satisfactory Program Progression requires that attendance in classes is maintained at equal to or greater than 80%, and that GPA is maintained at equal to or greater than 3.5 [please see Griffith College Policy Library - Program Progression Policy - for more information].

Teacher and Course Evaluation

Your feedback is respected and valued by your lecturers and tutors. You are encouraged to provide your thoughts on the course and teaching, both positive and critical, directly to your lecturer and tutor or by completing course and lecturer evaluations via Griffith College’s evaluation tool whenever these are available.

5.2 Evidence of Learning Task Detail

1 & 2 Log of Learning Activities - Reflective journal

Rationale: Journal entries will be used to link the course content to your personal experience so that you can immediately begin to apply your learning in this course.

Evidence of Learning (Assessment) details: You are required to submit two journal entries one in week 5 and one in week 7 on content covered in the learning circles. Journal entries will be used to link the course content to your personal experience so that you can immediately begin to apply your learning in this course.

Your tutor will provide you with a journal question in class one week prior to the submission due date. This task allows you to develop your own knowledge and reflect on situations you might have found personally challenging.

Marking criteria: The reflective portfolio will be marked against established pre-moderated criteria.

Each journal entry will be worth 10 marks

Submission: Online submission to Turnitin.

Written Assignment – Scenario Analysis

Rationale: The aim of this task is to provide students with the opportunity to demonstrate: knowledge of the concepts of self-compassion, self-care, cultural humility and socially just practice, as well as – an ability to apply this knowledge to analyse and evaluate a conversation between a member of a dominant and a member of a subordinate group, and to propose solutions. The purpose is to provide students with conceptual and practice tools to promote equity in contexts of diversity, focusing on intra-and interpersonal skills.

Assessment details: In the scenario provided, Polly (a member of a subordinate group) comes to Steve (a member of a dominant group) for support. In the conversation, she makes an important personal disclosure, which he finds challenging to come to terms with. Watch the scenario, analyse and evaluate the conversation, and with references to the concepts of cultural humility, socially just practice, self-compassion and self-care, answer the following three questions:

Explain which practices are performed well in this interaction. Provide evidence from the course content (including your online material, prescribed and/or recommended sources), to support your views. [Max number of words: 450]

Explain which practices are not performed well in the interaction. Provide evidence from the course content (including, where appropriate, your prescribed and/or recommended sources) to support your views. [Max number of words: 450]

Make suggestions for improvement by proposing ways in which the participants could have shown better self-compassion, self-care, cultural humility and socially just practice. Justify your suggestions. [Max number of words: 600]

[Total number of words: 1500]

Writing must be in appropriate academic style, using correct spelling, grammar and punctuation and referenced in accordance with APA 6th edition.

Marking criteria: The essay will be marked against established pre-moderated criteria available on the 1028HSV course site.

Submission: Online submission to Turnitin.

Final examination

Rationale: The final examination is intended to test the student's knowledge and understanding of equity and social justice issues examined in the course.

Evidence of Learning (Assessment) details: The final examination will be held during the end-of-trimester exam period and will comprise multiple-choice and short answer questions based around key themes in the course.

Marks will be awarded for evidence that the student has understood, and can apply and evaluate, the content presented in lectures, and tutorials and the required readings.

5.3 Late Submission

An evidence of learning (assessment) item submitted after the due date, without an approved extension from the Course Coordinator, will be penalised. The standard penalty is the reduction of the mark allocated to the assessment item by 5% of the maximum mark applicable for the assessment item, for each working day or part working day that the item is late. Evidence of learning items submitted more than five working days after the due date are awarded zero marks.

Please refer to the Griffith College website - Policy Library > Assessment Policy for guidelines and penalties for late submission.

5.4 Other Information about Evidence of Learning

Retention of Originals

You must be able to produce a copy of all work submitted if so requested. Copies should be retained until after the release of final results for the course.

Requests for extension

To apply for an extension of time for an evidence of learning item, you must submit an Application for Extension of Assignment form to your teacher at least 24 hours before the date the assignment is due. Grounds for extensions are usually: serious illness, accident, disability, bereavement or other compassionate circumstances and must be able to be substantiated with relevant documentation e.g. [Griffith College Student Medical Certificate]. Please refer to the Griffith College website - Policy Library - for guidelines regarding extensions and deferred assessment.

However, Griffith College also recognises many students breach academic integrity standards without intent to deceive. In these cases, students may be required to undertake additional educational activities to remediate their behaviour and may also be provided appropriate advice by academic staff.

As you undertake your studies at Griffith College, your lecturers, tutors and academic advisors will provide you with guidance to understand and maintain academic integrity; however, it is also your responsibility to seek out guidance if and when you are unsure about appropriate academic conduct.

In the case of an allegation of a breach of academic integrity being made against a student he or she may request the guidance and support of a Griffith College Student Learning Advisor or Student Counsellor.

Please ensure that you are familiar with the Griffith College Academic Integrity Policy; this policy provides an overview of some of the behaviours that are considered breaches of academic integrity, as well as the penalties and processes involved when a breach is identified.
