1.1 Course Details

Course Code:	FND106
Course Name:	Study of Society
Trimester:	Trimester 1 2025
Program:	Foundation
Credit Points:	10
Course Coordinator:	Dr Kristy Seymour
Document modified:

Course Description

This course considers various socio-cultural groups and institutions in society from an Australian sociological perspective. This subject explores the nature of power, ethics, and equity as social and cultural issues. It facilitates sociocultural understanding and enhances the premise of responsible citizenship whilst recognising points of difference and context. The course provides students with the skills to critically analyse a variety of opinions and attitudes towards and within various subcultures, societies and environments. The course reflects on the nature of different sociological theories in a Global context as well as specific concepts of social class; sex and gender; culture and subculture; crime, deviance and the law; marriage and family; globalisation and the economy; and, the environment and sustainability, and their influence on participation in society.

3.4 Other Information about your Learning

Preparation and Participation in Learning

As you progress from the Foundation program to Diploma studies with Griffith College you will note some changes to the terminology used about your learning. This includes Before Class = Learning Content; Classwork = Learning Experiences; Homework = Learning Activities and Assessment = Evidence of Learning. We have therefore included both in the below information.

You need to prepare before attending your scheduled learning experience. Work through the Before Class (Learning Content) prepared by your teacher which is found on the course site. Make sure you complete the After Class (Learning Activities) set each week, they are designed to support your learning. Active participation in your learning will enhance your success. Ask questions when something is unclear or when you want to bring some issue to your teacher's attention; respond to questions to test your knowledge and engage in discussion to help yourself and others learn.

Attendance

You are expected to actively engage in all Classwork (Learning Experiences) which underpin the learnings in this course. Attendance will be recorded by your teacher in each learning experience to ensure you are meeting the requirements of the program you are studying and/or your visa conditions. You are expected to engage with the Before Class and After Class outside of timetabled class times. You are expected to bring all necessary learning resources to class such as the required textbook and /or Workbook.

Consultation Sessions

Teachers offer extra time each week to assist students outside the classroom. This is known as 'consultation time.' This time is critical for you to use to seek assistance from your teacher. You must book these consultation sessions as part of your weekly learning to assist you to succeed in your studies.

Course Learning Materials

Learning materials are made available to you in the course site. The learning materials are arranged in Modules. In each Module you will find Before Class (Learning Content), Classwork (Learning Experiences), After Class (Learning Activities) and Assessment (Evidence of Learning). Before Class work will be engaged with prior to the scheduled Classwork (your weekly class). This will ensure you are prepared for the scheduled class by being aware of the content to be covered and therefore will be able to actively participate in the session. Homework (Learning Activities) are accessed after the scheduled session for purposes of review, consolidation of learning, and preparation for Assessment (Evidence of Learning Tasks) in the course

Self-Directed Learning

You will be expected to learn independently. This means you must organise and engage with the course content even when you are not specifically asked to do so by your teacher. The weekly guide (below) will be helpful to organise your learning. This involves revising the weekly course learning material and completing the homework activities. It also means you will need to find additional information to evidence your learning beyond that given to you, and to construct your own response to a question or topic. All of this requires careful planning of your time. Expect to spend, on average, at least 10 hours per week including class time for each of your courses

Program Progression

You are reminded that satisfactory Program Progression requires that attendance in classes is maintained at equal to or greater than 80%. You will be notified should your attendance fall below this, and required to enter into a Return to Study Plan. Students are engaged in their learning and to maintain a GPA equal or greater than 3.5 not to be at risk of exclusion please see Griffith College Policy Library - [Program Progression Policy – section 2.3 and 2.4 for more information on progress to avoid probation and exclusion.

Teacher and Course Evaluation

Your feedback is respected and valued by your teachers. You are encouraged to provide your thoughts on the course and teaching, both positive and critical, directly to your teacher or by completing course and teacher evaluations via Griffith College's evaluation tool whenever these are available.

1	Mapping Sociology Theory Task	25%	1,2	Week 6, Friday 5pm
2	Reflective Writing Task	35%	1,2,3,4	Week 10, Friday 5pm
3	Final Exam	40%	1,2,3	Exam Week

5.2 Evidence of Learning Task Detail

You are required to submit your own work for marking. All planning, notes and drafts need to be retained so they can be presented to your teacher if requested.

Please note that generative artificial intelligence (GenAI) applications are not permitted to be used for assessment content creation, translation or extensive language assistance unless specifically identified in the assessment guidelines. Where permission is given for the use of GenAI applications for assessment content creation, appropriate referencing must occur.

Students should follow all teacher directions about the use of Generative Artificial Intelligence (GenAI) tools in relation to formative and summative assessment tasks (including how to cite GenAI tools, if relevant). It should be noted that Turnitin provides teaching staff with a GenAI percentage indicator as well as an Originality Report which detects plagiarism.

1. Evidence of Learning Task 1: SOCIOLOGY MAPPING TASK

Task Type: Written assignment

Due Date: Week 6, Friday 5pm Weight:
25%

Task Description: Using your knowledge so far, you must choose one of the three main theoretical frameworks of Sociology: Functionalism, Conflict Theory or Symbolic Interactionism, you will then create a mind map of this ONE sociology theory. The mind map must include:

An overview of the Theory: its latent and manifest functions, and key points.

The key/main theorists from this theoretical method, for example: Conflict theory: Karl Marx etc.

An example of how this theory explains or understands a key social theory or concept, for example: Functionalism and Crime OR Conflict Theory and Social Stratification.

You will be given time in class to develop your ideas for this task. Additionally, you will have access to samples of example maps to refer to

Criteria and Marking: Learning Outcomes 1 and 2. Students will be assessed on their ability to demonstrate their understanding of one of the three main theories of Sociology, their critical thinking and comprehension of how these theories relate to social issues. Submission: Turnitin via the course site

2. Evidence of Learning Task 2: REFLECTIVE WRITING TASK

Task Type: Written Assignment

Due Date: Friday 5pm Week 10

Weight: 35%

Length: 500 words (Two Developed paragraphs).

Task Description: Reflective writing task instructions: You will choose the sociology theory that you relate to or agree with most to reflect on your understanding of the sociological imagination and how as a student of sociology you are learning to see the world using a sociology perspective.

Your reflection must include the following:

An overview of the theory: You must demonstrate your understanding of the theory, its key theorists, the main concepts and beliefs and structures that it follows.

Two reasons why you identify with this theory that you have chosen to understand and view society and the world, using your sociological imagination. You must cite the textbook: Think Sociology and one other academic resource (this can be an academic book or an academic journal article).

Criteria and Marking: Students are assessed on their reflective writing skills and their ability to utilise appropriate research methods as well as their ability to use critical thinking to articulate their knowledge. Submission: Turnitin via the course site

3. Evidence of Learning Task 3: FINAL EXAM

Task Type: Examination

Due Date: Exam Week

Weight: 40%

Duration: 3 hours

Task Description: The final exam will cover topics presented from weeks 5 – 11. The final exam may be a combination of MultipleChoice and short answer questions, and short essay questions.

Criteria and Marking: Students are assessed on their ability to demonstrate their developed knowledge of the key concepts of the course as delivered in weeks 5-11.

Submission: online quiz/exam

In order to pass this Course, students must:

A. Attempt all assessment items

B. demonstrate assurance of learning of all learning outcomes through graded Evidence of Learning Tasks.

5.3 Late Submission

An Evidence of Learning Task submitted after the due date, without an approved extension from the teacher, will be penalised. The standard penalty is the reduction of the mark allocated to the Evidence of Learning Task by 5% of the maximum mark applicable for the Evidence of Learning Task, for each calendar day that the task is late. Evidence of learning tasks submitted more than seven calendar days after the due date are awarded zero marks.

Please refer to the Griffith College website - Policy Library > Assessment Policy for guidelines and penalties for late submission.

5.4 Other Information about Evidence of Learning

Retention of Originals

You must be able to produce a copy of all work submitted if so requested. Copies should be retained until after the release of final results for the Course.

Requests for extension

To apply for an extension of time for an evidence of learning task, you must submit an Application for Extension of Assignment form to your teacher at least 24 hours before the date the assignment is due. Grounds for extensions are usually: serious illness, accident, disability, bereavement or other compassionate circumstances and must be able to be substantiated with relevant documentation e.g. [Griffith College Student Medical Certificate]. Please refer to the Griffith College website – Policy Library for guidelines regarding extensions and deferred Evidence of Learning Tasks.

Return of Evidence of Learning Tasks

1. Marks awarded for in-trimester evidence of learning tasks, except those being moderated externally with Griffith University, will be available on the course site within fourteen [14] days of the due date. This does not apply to the final evidence of learning task in this course (marks for this task will be provided with the final course result).
2. Students will be advised of their final grade through the Digital Campus. Students can review their final exam papers after student grades have been published. Review of final exam papers will not be permitted after the final date to enrol.
3. Marks for all evidence of learning tasks including the final exam (if applicable) will be recorded in the Course Site and made available to students through the Course Site.

The sum of your marks of evidence of learning tasks in this course does not necessarily imply your final grade for the course. Standard grade cut off scores can be varied for particular courses, so you need to wait for the official release of grades to be sure of your grade for this course.

6. Policies & Guidelines

Griffith College Evidence of Learning Tasks-related policies can be found in the Griffith College Policy Library which include the following policies:

Assessment Policy, Special Consideration, Deferred Assessment, Alternate Exam Sittings, Medical Certificates, Academic Integrity, Finalisation of Results, Review of Marks, Moderation of Assessment, Turn-it-in Software Use. These policies can be accessed within the Policy Library

Academic Integrity Griffith College is committed to maintaining high academic standards to protect the value of its qualifications. Academic integrity means acting with the values of honesty, trust, fairness, respect and responsibility in learning, teaching and research. It is important for students, teachers, researchers and all staff to act in an honest way, be responsible for their actions, and show fairness in every part of their work. Academic integrity is important for an individual's and the College's reputation.

All staff and students of the College are responsible for academic integrity. As a student, you are expected to conduct your studies honestly, ethically and in accordance with accepted standards of academic conduct. Any form of academic conduct that is contrary to these standards is considered a breach of academic integrity and is unacceptable.

Some students deliberately breach academic integrity standards with intent to deceive. This conscious, pre-meditated form of cheating is considered one of the most serious forms of fraudulent academic behaviour, for which the College has zero tolerance and for which penalties, including exclusion from the College, will be applied.

However, Griffith College also recognises many students breach academic integrity standards without intent to deceive. In these cases, students may be required to undertake additional educational activities to remediate their behaviour and may also be provided appropriate advice by academic staff.

As you undertake your studies at Griffith College, your teachers and academic advisors will provide you with guidance to understand and maintain academic integrity; however, it is also your responsibility to seek out guidance if and when you are unsure about appropriate academic conduct.

In the case of an allegation of a breach of academic integrity being made against a student he or she may request the guidance and support of a Griffith College Student Learning Advisor or Student Counsellor.

Please ensure that you are familiar with the Griffith College Academic Integrity Policy; this policy provides an overview of some of the behaviours that are considered breaches of academic integrity, as well as the penalties and processes involved when a breach is identified.

For further information please refer to the Griffith College website - Policy Library > Academic Integrity Policy

Reasonable Adjustments for Evidence of Learning Tasks –

The Disability Services Policy (accessed within the Policy Library) outlines the principles and processes that guide the College in making reasonable adjustments to Evidence of Learning Tasks for students with disabilities while maintaining academic robustness of its programs.
